Mid Shore Behavioral Health, Inc. launches Workplace Excellence Series

Cambridge, MD (February 11, 2026) – Mid Shore Behavioral Health, Inc. (MSBH) is proud to announce the launch of its inaugural Workplace Excellence Series, a 10-module program designed to help participants build essential workplace soft skills that strengthen their value to prospective employers. The series equips attendees with practical tools, insight into employer expectations, and strategies to succeed in today's competitive workforce, with a focus on supporting dislocated and long-term unemployed individuals returning to employment in Dorchester County.

The first session will be held every Thursday from 10:30 AM to 2:30 PM, beginning February 19th through graduation on March 12th, 2026, at the Innovation Center in Cambridge, Maryland. This class is open to Dorchester County residents. Additional classes will be announced for other Mid-Shore counties.

The Workplace Excellence Series is generously sponsored by Dorchester Temporary Shelter and the Dorchester Department of Economics. Transportation for participants will be provided by Susan Banks and Roselia Jones of Dri Dock Recovery and Wellness Center. Facilitators for the series include Jimmy Morris Jr., CWDP, DCC, and America McKinney, both Certified Workplace Excellence Facilitators with MSBH. "The Workplace Excellence Series is designed to give participants the tools they need to thrive in professional settings," said Morris. "By combining practical skills with an understanding of employer expectations, we aim to help participants return to the workforce with confidence and success."

For more information or to register for the Workplace Excellence Series, contact Jimmy Morris at jmorris@midshorebehavioralhealth.org, or call 410-770-4801.

As the Core Service Agency for the mid-shore region, Mid Shore Behavioral Health, Inc. is dedicated to enhancing behavioral health services for residents of Caroline, Dorchester, Kent,
